****************** 米 米 米 ******************* September Newsletter **************** It appears the month of August has flown by. As in the blink of an eye. We have long hot summer days, too hot sometimes, and warm humid nights, I have noticed a coolness in the breeze indicating the start of Autumn. I'm looking forward to seeing the changes Autumn brings. It has a beauty unique to this time of year. Continuing our series of articles on different faiths. The next two are Sikh and Spiritualist 米 米 Sikh Sikhism was developed in the 16th Century in Punjab, India. Sikhs ※ believe in one God and many cycles of rebirth. They request equality of 米 all people regardless of Caste, colour, creed or sex. Sikhs do not have a 米 米 specific holy day. British Sikhs have adopted Sunday as their holy day. 米 Prayers are said three times a day, before dawn, after the days work

*********** 米 米 米 * and before sleeping. As a sign of faith Sikhs wear a Kesh (long hair kept 米 米 under a turban) To indicate equality all men are given the name Singh 米 米 (Lion) and women Kaur (Princess) Some Sikhs prefer to use this *** religious title rather than their family name. Wherever possible female patients prefer to be seen by female doctors. ****** The 5 'Ks' worn by Sikh men Kesh (long hair) Kangha (small comb in the hair) Kacha (a special type of underwear) Kara (a steel bracelet or ring worn on the right wrist) Kirpaan (a sword symbolically worn by baptised Sikhs) should not be removed. If this is needed it must be carefully explained to the patient and the spiritual leader contacted if there are no relatives. *** Sikhs are basically lacto-vegetarians. Beef and pork are not normally eaten. Many will not accept fish, eggs and meat. At death routine procedures may be performed. The five 'Ks' must not be removed. There are no objections on religious 米 米 grounds to blood transfusions or organ donation/transplant. 米 Sikhs are always cremated. 米 米 Sikh custom is that comfort given to the bereaved should be by 米 those of the same sex. 米 米 ***

*********** 米 米 米 * SPIRITUALIST Spiritualism began on March 31st 1848 when ********** the Fox sisters produced spirit rappings in their home in New York. Spiritualism is a rational religion based on the proven knowledge that man's spirit survives physical death. Spiritualist philosophy contains neither dogma or creed and is discussed rather than preached. Spiritualist members may request a Healer for treatment along side medical treatment, This involves the laying on of hands, an act which can be performed quietly and with discretion. No specific dietary requirements have been identified. They believe that those in the spirit world will come and meet and welcome them on death. Routine last offices are important. **** There are no objections on religious grounds to organ donation or transplantation or Post Mortems. 米 Here is a little about our next two willing volunteers 米 米 Angela Jones – Care Assistant wrote:-米 米 I am 50 years old, been with my partner Kev for 4 years.
